I ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

PART 1 BACKGROUND

1. The University of Leicester Students' Union (the "Union") is a students' union within the meaning of the Education Act 1994. The Union is devoted to the educational interests and welfare of its Members.
2. The Union will seek at all times to:
 - 2.1 ensure that the diversity of its Membership is recognised and that equal access is available to all Members of whatever origin or orientation;
 - 2.2 pursue its aims and objectives independent of any political party or religious group; and
 - 2.3 pursue equal opportunities by taking positive action within the law to facilitate participation of groups discriminated against by society.
3. These Articles have been structured so as to give the Board of Trustees reasonable authority to manage the affairs of the Union in a professional manner. The Members enjoy the right, which must be exercised in accordance with charity law, to elect a proportion of the Trustees and to dismiss all of the Trustees. The Board of Trustees will give the most careful consideration to the views of Members.
4. Under the Education Act 1994, the University of Leicester has a statutory duty to ensure that the Union operates in a fair and democratic manner and is held to proper account for its finances. The Trustees therefore work alongside the University of Leicester in ensuring that the affairs of the Union are properly conducted and that the educational and welfare needs of the Union's Members are met. At the same time the University of Leicester recognises the importance of the independence of the Union and intends that nothing done by either the Union or the University should create a situation whereby the University has, or is seen to have, a controlling interest in the Union.

30.1.1 in advance of the general meeting where it is to be put to the vote; or 30.1.2 at a general meeting, either before a show of hands on that resolution or immediately after the result of a show of hands on that resolution is declared.

30.2 A poll may be demanded by:

30.2.1 the chair of the meeting;

30.2.2 the Trustees;

30.2.3 two or more persons having the right to vote on the resolution;

30.2.4 any person who, by virtue of being appointed proxy for one or more Members having the right to vote at the meeting, holds two or more votes; or

- 34.2.1 the chair of the meeting proposes the amendment at the general meeting at which the resolution is to be proposed; and

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 The University of Leicester Students' Union (hereinafter referred to as 'the Union') represents the students of the University of Leicester (hereinafter referred to as "the University") and seeks to serve their social, cultural, welfare, educational, political, sporting and developmental needs, to further their interests both inside and outside the University, and generally to enhance their well-being. "The University" shall be taken to mean the governing body of the University, normally the Council, or its senior representatives, including the President and Vice-Chancellor, the Registrar and Secretary, the Director of Finance, and the Director of Estates and Digital Services.
- 1.2 The University's Royal Charter (Article 12) establishes a Students' Union and the Statutes and Ordinances of the University further define the relationship between the Union and the University (reproduced in the appendices).
- 1.3 The aim of this Memorandum of Understanding is to set out, under a number of heads of agreement, issues of common interest to the Union and its subsidiary companies (University of Leicester Students' Union Trading), its elected officers and staff, and the University, so that a clear and positive working relationship between the two is established. It is the responsibility of the University, under the Education Act 1994, to ensure that the Students' Union complies with Section 22 of that Act. Specifically, the University must approve the Constitution and review it at least every five years.
- 1.4 The University last approved the current constitution of the Union in July 2015.
- 1.5 This Memorandum seeks to set out in one place all the documentation regarding the Union's relationship with the University and includes the Code of Practice (referred to in clause 2.3 below) required by the Education Act 1994.
- 1.6 In addition to this document the following documents relate to the Union's operation:
- 1.7 The Union's constitution in the form of its Company articles and memorandum;
- 1.8 The Union's rules and regulations that lay out the detailed operating practices of the various Union committees and bodies;
- 1.9 The Percy Gee lease between the University and the Union that sets out the legal arrangements for the safe and appropriate operation of the Union's premises, which are based in the Percy Gee building of the University campus.
- 1.10 The Union's Strategic Plan that lays out its long term aims and goals. The Union's annual objectives are shared with the University via a series of planning meetings. The post-pandemic strategy is currently being reviewed and is due to be launched for 2022/23. The final strategy will be hosted on the Union's website shortly thereafter.
- 1.11 The Union's annual budget and operating document that are established to clarify the Union's detailed plans for the current year.

2. THE STATUS AND RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE UNION AND THE UNIVERSITY

- 2.1 The University affirms its commitment to the self-government and autonomy of the Union under its own constitution, consistent with the law and with the University's obligations.
- 2.2 The University and the Union trusts that this Memorandum of Understanding will contribute to maintaining the excellent relationship between the University and the Union and between University officers and Union officers which is in the interests of the University and of its students.

- 2.3 In recognition of its responsibilities, in particular as a result of the Education Act 1994, Part II, the University has agreed this memorandum and the details within it should be read as the Code of Practice required by Section 22.3 of the Act. Attached as an appendix is a summary of the details of the Code of Practice that can be published to all students as required by section 22.4 of the Education Act 1994.

3. MANAGEMENT, ACCOUNTABILITY AND THE LAW

- 3.1 In relation to the Union's affairs there will be designated a student officer to act as the prime student representative and the Chair of Trustees and the Lead Student Officer for all legal matters. Currently this is the President of the Union. The Lead Student Officer is assisted by the other sabbatical officers, other elected officer posts and by the Chief Executive Officer of the Union and his/her staff.
- 3.2 To assist the Union and in recognition of its responsibilities in particular areas of activity, the University has appointed a nominated officer from amongst the staff of the University, to advise the Union's Trustees on any matters that the Trustees should wish, but particularly on financial matters, and to act as the University's representative in such matters as may be deemed necessary. The President and Vice-Chancellor shall propose, and the Union Board of Trustees shall agree the choice of nominated officer.
- 3.3 The Union will comply with the requirements of the Health and Safety at Work Act, with the Chief Executive having the same responsibilities in this respect as those defined in the University's Health and Safety Policy for a Head of Department. The Chief Executive, or his or her nominated deputy, for reasons of continuity, will also be the Safety Officer for the Union, advising the Students' Union Trustees as appropriate. The University Safety Advisor will be the appointed person to advise the Union on Health and Safety matters.
- 3.4 The Students' Union is responsible for complying with all other laws relating to its operations and activities including Building Regulations, the Bribery Act, Food Safety, Data Protection, the Freedom of Information Act, Copyright, Environmental Protection, Charities, Licensing, Education, Employment, Equal Opportunities legislation and the Statutes, Ordinances and Regulations of the University, in the same way as an academic department. University Officers will provide advice necessary to facilitate compliance.
- 3.5 The Union will immediately inform the Registrar and Secretary of any legal proceedings taken or proposed against the Union or its officers.
- 3.6 The Council of the University will appoint an observer to the Sabbatical Officer Election count.
- 3.7 The Union is obliged to maintain a register of members in order to comply with Company and Charity Law. It is agreed that this register will be held on behalf of the Union's trustees by the University Registrar and Secretary who will enable appropriate access to the register by all and any authorised persons or organisations. The Union will also have access to the data held within the register for the purposes of communications with the Company members as and when required.

4. PREMISES

- 4.1 The Students' Union will be provided with certain premises for the purpose of furthering the social, recreational, cultural, welfare and sporting activities of the University's students so far as is reasonably practicable. The premises so provided are owned by the University and made available to the Union under the terms of a lease which shall establish tenant rights for and obligations on the Union and establishes a formula for the payment of rent and sets out responsibilities for the maintenance of the Building. The Union will not permit third parties to occupy space or facilities in any form that establishes any rights of occupancy without the permission of the University.
- 4.2 The Union and its clubs and societies will be permitted use of other areas in the University by agreement and in accordance with any statute, laid down procedures and subject to availability for social, recreational, educational, cultural and sporting activities, such areas remaining the management responsibility of the University.
- 4.3 Where the Union is allowing use of its premises to clubs, societies or to outside organisations, the requirements of the University's Regulations on Freedom of Speech, attached as an appendix to this Memorandum, will be met by the Union. In addition, the Union is responsible for implementing rules governing posters, notices, temporary signs and the distribution of literature on Union premises and where clubs and societies are using other University space.
- 4.6 The Union is required to inform the University of any activities that may cause disruption to the normal operations of the University, not less than 14 calendar days before the activity in writing to the Registrar and Secretary.

5. FINANCE

- 5.1 Subject to any constraints imposed by OfS, the University shall determine the level of grant to be paid annually to the Students' Union for the furtherance of its charitable objectives. The grant level will be agreed after a period of debate and consultation between the Union and the University that shall include the requirement for the Union to provide, for information, details of its proposed budget and its operating plans.
- 5.2 The Students' Union is responsible for maintaining its own bank account and financial records and preparing its own annual financial statements. The Students' Union may not borrow money from its bank or elsewhere, without approval from the Director of Finance.
- 5.3 All of the Union's charitable activities should be operated in a transparent manner and should encompass all of its operations including clubs and societies, sports teams and trading activities.
- 5.4 At year end, the Students' Union financial statements will be audited by an appropriately qualified firm of auditors and will be presented to the Finance and Infrastructure Committee for information.
- 5.5 In accordance with an agreement between the University and the Students' Union, the University's internal auditor shall have access to records, assets and personnel within the Students' Union in the same way as other areas of the University.
- 5.6 The Students' Union is responsible for maintaining their insurance arrangements. These must be declared to and agreed with the Director of Estates and Digital Services.

- 5.7 The University is required under the Education Act 1994 to take such steps as are reasonably practicable to secure that the Students' Union is accountable for its finances, and that the financial affairs of the Union are properly conducted, as well as ensuring that arrangements exist for the approval of the Union's budget and the monitoring of its expenditure by the University.
- 5.8 The regulation of the financial affairs of the Union is detailed in the Constitution. Responsibility is vested in the Board of Trustees of the Union (or any properly constituted Sub-committee). The Board of Trustees will forward an agreed provisional budget to be received by the University in time for consideration by the University Finance Committee, the final budget being determined after the final allocation of the Union's grant.
- 5.9 The Union may bid for additional capital to fund larger projects that the Union may wish to undertake.
- 5.10 The Union may not incur expenditure, or take any action, which is inconsistent with the law relating to charities. In general, expenditure is proper if it can be said to be appropriate for the purpose of representing and furthering the interests of students at the University in such a way as to assist in the educational aims of the University.
- 5.11 An Annual Report and Accounts of the Union will be published online annually, via the Charities Commission, Companies House and will be made available to students and the University. The Report will be available for inspection in the Union office and the office of the Registrar and Secretary.

- 7.2 The Board of Trustees shall be responsible for all matters relating to the employment, appointment, supervision and dismissal of staff. The dismissal of permanent staff shall be the responsibility of the Union's Chief Executive (or in the case of the Chief Executive, the appropriate sub-committee of the Board of Trustees), and shall follow regulations laid out in the Union's employment handbook (located in the Union Office) and follow all legal requirements and current best practice.

- 7.3 The standards by which staff employed by the Union and how they shall conduct themselves in relation to each other are included in a Staff Student Protocol (employment handbook) agreed by the Board of Trustees.
- 7.4 The Union will consult with the University regarding any proposed change to its employees' pension arrangements. For so long as the University is required by USS to guarantee the Union's obligations to USS, the Union will in particular ensure that it remains in active membership of USS by having at least one member of staff in active membership, and taking such action as is necessary to avoid triggering a "Section 75" withdrawal from USS.
- 7.5 The University will be consulted regarding the terms, conditions and recruitment of the Union's most senior member of staff, normally the Chief Executive. The University will normally be invited by the Board of Trustees to add a member of its senior management team to any interview panel for the senior staff post in the Union.
- 7.6 Staff employed by the Union to work for more than 16 hours per week, on contracts of at least 12 months' duration, and who are not already full-time students of the University, shall be entitled to receive a fee discount on courses of part-time or distance learning study undertaken by them at the University. On this basis a fee discount which is the same as that which is offered to University staff will be applied to programmes of study. Individuals whose primary purpose in joining the University is to be a student shall not be eligible to receive such discounts.

8. COMPLAINTS AND DISCIPLINE

- 8.1 The by-laws of the Union provide for a complaints procedure for use by students not satisfied in their dealings with the Union. - 8.2 Complainants not satisfied as a result of the above have the right of access to an independent person appointed by the University. The independent person will carry out appropriate enquiries and report to the complainant and to the University with conclusions and suggested remedies. All parties to any complaint will be informed of its nature and have the right to present written responses or representations, which will be considered.
- 8.3 Reports of complaints and of suggested remedies shall be made to the University. The University shall determine whether the remedies are appropriate and suggest action by the Union, the University or the complainant as a result. The Union undertakes to implement such remedies promptly and fully.
- 8.4 Serious offences will be reported by the Union to the Registrar and Secretary before Union action is considered or taken. Any University decision to proceed under the University Senate regulations governing student discipline will normally take precedence and any Union proceedings will cease.

10. MEDIA

- 10.1 All features, articles, letters and advertisements published in publications, or content on the radio or TV stations are as a result of decisions made by the Editor/Station Manager liaising with the Executive Committee of the Union as appropriate. As such they are independent of the University and the University will accept no responsibility for anything so published. Material which is unlawful may not be published, and the Union is obliged to ensure this is so and will appoint a student officer to check student publications to ensure compliance with the law before it goes to print or is broadcast. The Union's Trustees shall ensure that there is in place an appropriate removal policy for all Union media.
- 10.2 All the Union's electronic communications (including its web site and any social network sites) will be moderated by a responsible officer or staff member of the Union, and any offensive or inappropriate material will be removed as soon as it is practical to do so.
- 10.3 The Union will normally liaise with the University press office if significant media publicity is being sought for any issue in order to maximise its impact and to reduce any potential clashes with the University press agenda.

The President and Vice-Chancellor will meet with officers of the Union from time to time or as necessary.

A copy of the MoU is included within the SU constitution and this was last reviewed earlier this year.
- 15.2 The rules and regulations of the Union can be amended by the Union (utilising the appropriate procedures) as required. APPENDIX 6: UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS CONCERNING FREEDOM OF SPEECH

CODE OF PRACTICE CONCERNING FREEDOM OF SPEECH

Introduction

1. The University regards it as a fundamental principle of its existence as an independent academic institution that freedom of speech within the law should be respected on its premises and in all its activities. No individual or body of persons shall be prevented from studying, or participating in any academic activity, or being invited to deliver a lecture, or delivering a lecture, or complying with a contract of employment with the University, solely on account of their political, religious or other opinions and beliefs. Equally, the University does not expect that any speaker will make requests or seek to impose conditions requiring the observance of their opinions or beliefs by the audience.

Basis of Jurisdiction

2. This Code is approved by the Council, in accordance with its authority under the Charter and Statutes of the University. It also constitutes the Code of Practice required by Section 43 of the Education (No 2) Act 1986, which states, inter alia, that every individual and body of persons concerned in the government of the University shall take such steps as are reasonably practicable to ensure that freedom of speech within the law is secured for members, students and employees of the University and for visiting speakers; and that the Council shall issue and keep up to date a code of practice setting out the procedures to be followed in connection with the organisation of meetings and other activities, and the conduct required in connection with any such meeting or activity.

Scope of Authority

3. The provisions of this Code, and of any procedures duly instituted in accordance with it, shall apply in full to all employees, students, honorary and visiting staff and any other members of the University within the meaning of Section 2 of the Statutes; to the Students' Union, its clubs and societies; and to all persons and associations occupying property of the University.
4. All persons to whom the Code applies are under an obligation to take no action which would hinder freedom of speech within the law, or which would prevent the University, the President and Vice-Chancellor or any of its Officers from discharging their duty to ensure freedom of speech so far as is reasonably practicable.
5. Ordinance 23(2) and the Regulations Governing Student Discipline provide that persons authorised by Senate for the purpose shall have the authority, and it shall be their duty to check disorderly or improper conduct or any breach of regulations occurring in any of the University buildings or their precincts or in public buildings or places.
6. This Code applies to informal or social activities and events as well as to any more formal meeting or lecture as may be subject to the specific and detailed special arrangements set out below. Examples of applicable events include visiting lecturers invited by academic staff; religious or political representatives speaking on campus; and events such as debates, speeches and conferences taking place in University facilities that have been organised by staff, students and external bodies.
7. Throughout this Code, its provisions will be deemed to apply both to events that are held face-to-face on University premises, and to events that are delivered online via a virtual/digital platform.

8. In the exercise of its duties under this Code, the University and its Officers will also take account of other obligations under the law which may require it to have regard to what is said on its premises. In particular, the rights conferred by this Code do not extend to any speaker who acts unlawfully by, for example, using threatening, abusive or insulting words or behaviour so as to run the risk of inciting violence or racial hatred; who invites support for a proscribed terrorist organisation; or whose activities, even if directed to lawful purposes, cease to be lawful when, for example, they break conditions imposed by the police, endanger the health and safety of others, or cause serious public disorder.

Procedures

9. The President and Vice-Chancellor shall be responsible to the Council for the operation and enforcement of this Code. His or her authority for its administration shall be delegated to the Registrar and Secretary, who may further delegate authority in general or particular instances to other Officers of the University.
10. The Registrar and Secretary shall be authorised to compile such additional Administrative Procedures as he or she thinks necessary for the effective implementation of this Code, and such procedures shall have effect as if they formed part of this Code, and shall be interpreted in such a manner as not to conflict with the Code.
11. Such administrative procedures may include, but are not restricted to:
 - a. details of the arrangements required for booking rooms or arranging other activities on University premises;
 - b. appointing of Officers responsible for the receipt and management of event bookings;
 - c. explanation and elaboration of the categories of visiting speaker, and of subject matter for a meeting, and of other characteristics of an activity which at any given time is likely to be "designated" under the terms of paragraph 22 below.
12. Such Administrative Procedures shall be published by the Registrar and Secretary in an Appendix to this Code and, as far as is reasonably practicable, shall be circulated to all persons or organisations within the University concerned in the organisation of activities covered by this Code. Failure to receive such Administrative Procedures shall not exempt the organiser of any activity from liability to conform with the said procedures.

General Requirements

13. Any meeting or activity taking place on the premises of the University, shall, whether it has been "designated" or not, comply with paragraphs 1 and 4 above, and with paragraphs 14 to 21 below.
14. The organisers of any meeting or activity held on University premises shall ensure that a single person is appointed as the principal organiser of the event. The principal organiser has a duty to see that nothing in the preparations for or conduct of that meeting or activity infringes the law, for example, by conduct likely to cause a breach of the peace or incitement to illegal acts.
15. The principal organiser or chair of the meeting has a duty so far as is possible to ensure that both the audience and the speaker act in accordance with the law during the meeting. In the case of conduct which is or appears to be unlawful or in breach of this Code, the chair is required to give appropriate warning and, if necessary, to require the withdrawal or removal of persons concerned.

16. No article or objects capable of causing damage or injury may be taken inside a building where a meeting is taking place, or taken or used elsewhere on University premises, in circumstances likely to lead to damage or injury.
17. Premises used for meetings or activities must be left in a clean and tidy condition, in default of which the organisers may be charged for any additional cleaning and repairs that are subsequently required.
18. The University's expectation is that any request to make a booking for an event to be held on University premises will normally be received at least two weeks before the event is due to take place. This notice period is required so that the University has sufficient time to undertake any review that it considers necessary of the details of the planned event. The University's expectation is that any such review will normally be completed within three working days of the receipt of the request. Any specific variations to these normal expectations are detailed in the Appendix.

Gender Segregation at Events and Meetings

19. The University has a legal duty to ensure that all students, employees and members of the public can enjoy access to events and meetings held on its premises without unlawful discrimination. Segregation of audiences according to gender is therefore not permitted at any conference, meeting, speech, lecture or other event organised for and attended by students, employees of the University or the Students' Union, or members of the public. This includes any such event held on University premises that takes place under the auspices of the Students' Union, its clubs, societies and associations, or any external organisation.
20. The University will decline any request received from an organising body or a visiting speaker, or from an individual attending or wishing to attend an event at the University, for the audience to be segregated according to gender.
21. Segregation according to gender is permissible during acts of collective religious worship as this is not subject to equality legislation. However, no segregation is permitted at any meeting or event at the University which precedes or follows on from an act of collective religious worship.

Designated Events

22. Any meeting or other activity where the Registrar and Secretary judges that the identity of the speaker and/or the subject matter of his or her speech will be regarded as controversial, such that there is a real likelihood that the speaker or participants may not be able to enter or leave the building safely and/or deliver his or her speech, will be classified by the Registrar and Secretary or (in each of clauses 24-30) his or her Appointed Officer as a Designated Event.
23. The fact that a meeting or activity has for any reason not been defined as a Designated Event shall in no way exempt the organisers or participants from their general responsibilities under this Code.
24. The principal organiser of a Designated Event will be required to provide to the Registrar and Secretary or his or her Appointed Officer, by a deadline which shall be specified by the University for that event, a written statement of the name of the speaker, the title and subject of the address and the precise times of the arrival and departure of the speaker. The University reserves the right to cancel the booking at any time for any event where the principal organiser does not provide the written statement by the due deadline.
25. Having given proper consideration to this written statement and all other information as he or she deems appropriate, in accordance with the general principles set out in paragraphs 1 and 2, the Registrar and Secretary shall issue to the principal organiser a written statement which shall either grant or withhold permission for the use of University premises for the event. This shall normally be issued within three working days of the receipt of the written statement from the principal organiser, and it shall indicate that the principal organiser has the right to appeal against the decision of the Registrar and Secretary.

26. Permission for the use of University premises may be granted subject to such conditions as the Registrar and Secretary considers reasonably necessary to secure fulfilment of the University's responsibilities concerning the protection of free speech within the law.
27. The principal organiser must provide written confirmation that they and all other persons concerned with the organisation of, or speaking at, an event for which permission has been granted shall be required to comply with any and every condition laid down by the Registrar and Secretary. Such conditions may include a requirement that tickets must be issued for public meetings, events should conclude by a certain time and that an adequate number of named stewards should be available, as to whose suitability the Registrar and Secretary must be satisfied, in addition to any security staff that the Registrar and Secretary may feel should be present to maintain order.
28. The conditions prescribed by the Registrar and Secretary may include conditions concerning admission or exclusion of press, television or broadcasting personnel. Conditions may also exclude the audience being allowed to record some or any part of the event.
29. In addition to any conditions referred to above the Registrar and Secretary has discretion to lay down further conditions, if appropriate, after consultation with the police; and if not satisfied that adequate arrangements can be made to maintain good order and the health and safety of all individuals involved in the event the Registrar and Secretary may refuse or withdraw permission for the meeting or activity. This shall include the authority to withdraw permission at short notice, including immediately before or after an event has commenced if it becomes apparent that the University has not been notified of relevant details or material changes, such as a change of named speaker, which might otherwise have resulted in permission to hold the event not being granted.
30. Appeals against the rulings of the Registrar and Secretary may be made to the President and Vice-Chancellor whose decision shall be final but must be reported nomito the next meeting of the Council.

Enforcement

31. Any infringement of this Code by a student or a member of staff of the University shall be subject to the established disciplinary procedures of the University appropriate to the person or persons concerned. In respect of students, infringement may be classified as an offence within the terms of the regulations governing student discipline; and in respect of employees of the University, infringement may be regarded as a breach of contract of employment.
32. If any actions involve breaches of the law, the University will assist the prosecuting authorities to implement the process of law and may suspend any internal disciplinary proceedings pending the outcome of any such processes.
