

Use of Reasonable Force in Schools

Whilst the use of reasonable force in schools should be seen as a last resort in handling a serious incident, this course explains when and how it may be used. The course covers what reasonable force means and who can use it, and details what happens in situations where it has been used.

EduCare®
Use of Reasonable Force
in Schools

Key features

- Level 2 course (as graded against the nationally accepted levels and equivalent to GCSE grades A*-C).
- One module with a multiple choice questionnaire.
- One CPD hour with a personalised downloadable certificate.
- 70% pass mark.
- Accredited by Secured by Design and meets national Police approved standards.
- Optional narration of each module for accessibility.
- Additional resources for further learning and a printable module for future reference.

Course objectives

The course comprises one module and one questionnaire which will help you to understand what reasonable force is and why it is used. The main objectives for this course are:

1. Understand what reasonable force is and who can use it.
2. Learn when reasonable force can be used.
3. Understand what happens in situations when reasonable force has been used.
4. Identify good practice about incidents involving reasonable force.

Why choose us?

“ I'm grateful for the work EduCare do. It was the backbone of my CPD when I was a supply teacher for a few years and it is still my first port of call when I need information or when I need to refresh my memory about First Aid, Child Protection, fire hazards ... All essential stuff: 'Duty of Care' says it all really. ”

Peter Caughey
Heston Community School

Secured by Design

www.educare.co.uk
01926 436 211
online@educare.co.uk

